THE NEXT STATE FAIR.—Exhibitions have been entertained that the ensuing fair of the State Agricultural Society would be in part a failure, owing to the fact that the election occurs so soon after it—the following Tuesday. It will hardly allow any exhibitors time to remain during the whole four days and reach home in time to vote.

FOUR YEARS AGO it was thought that the whole reason kept away many visitors. All of the northern fairs have been well attended, and a new interest seems to have been awakened in regard to these exhibitions.

THE HOLTZERS, Captain E. J. Boshor, rank as one of the most popular military organizations in the State, and deservedly so. It may not be amiss just to add that what this city has done in the way of providing an army and in other contributions to the company seems to have been money well expended.

RECENTLY THE BATTERY as well as the army has been overhauled and painted, and how both are in the hands of the Holtzers, and the other military organizations in Richmond, is composed of gentlemen who not only take a deep and abiding interest in the association, but every man makes it his special duty to see that the reputation of the company is kept up, and what we saw last night was a most creditable appearance.

HALF-PAST 8 O'CLOCK between forty and fifty members of the company and a much larger number of their friends had gathered. The company was assembled by the buglers, ranks formed, and after a few evolutions had been gone through with very handsomely, Governor and General and General McDonald were escorted in, and the two visitors inspected carefully the arms and accoutrements of every member of the company. This over, the battery was drawn up in open order, and the Governor called on for an address.

HE SPOKE BRIEFLY and pointedly, referring to the appearance of the men, their soldierly and gentlemanly demeanor, and congratulated them upon the success of their organization and the beauty and comfort of their armory. His remarks in reference to the proposed visit of the company to King's Mountain were exceedingly appropriate, and were received with pleasant little compliments, after which ranks were broken and the members of the battery were introduced to his Excellency and General McDonald, and thanked them for their visit.

ONE OF THE most interesting features of the occasion was the presence of so many pretty young ladies. They beautified the hall not a little, and seemed as much pleased with the handsome soldiers as they were with the ladies. A young gentleman not posted as to the number of beauties in that part of the city expressed his surprise at a certain number of them, and was giving vent to his admiration of them.

THE MAIN hall of the armory has recently been very handsomely frescoed, and the walls are adorned with battle-scenes, engravings, and photographs of the good-looking members of the company. The guns and equipments were also arranged in a very handsome manner, and are a credit to any city or any artillery company in this or any other State.

THE HOLTZERS will leave on Sunday night at 10 o'clock for King's Mountain, and will carry with them the kind regards and good wishes of everybody in Richmond. Success to the Holtzers.

THE LAST LOST BROTHER FOUND.—On our local columns the "Romantic Relation" in Richmond of two Woodworth brothers, a second article, was published. We stated that about sixty-five years ago their father and mother, with their children, Catherine, William, Margaret, John, and Absalom, were living in or near Albany, N. Y.

THE DEATH of the parents following close the death of the mother, Absalom was a mere infant and John only three years old, caused a separation and scattering of the family, kind friends taking the little ones and ministering to their wants. After more than half a century all of them except Absalom were reunited under the circumstances narrated in the above mentioned article.

THE STORY of this family was copied by the press in all parts of the country, and among others by the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, where it came to the notice of the last brother, Absalom, from whom we yesterday received the following letter:

St. Louis, September 23d. To the Editor of the Richmond, Va. Dispatch: Dear Sir:—In reading the St. Louis Globe-Democrat newspaper I noticed an article copied from your paper headed "Reunited After Sixty Years."

NOW, MY name is Absalom Woodworth; I am about sixty years of age, and was born in Albany, N. Y. At the age of five or six years I was separated from my mother and sister, and came to the town of Little Falls, where I lived with my mother until I was twenty-one or twenty-two years old, and was then moved to Little Falls, where I lived until I was thirty years old, when I came to the city of New York, where I have since resided.
